GALES OVER EUROPE CONTINUE TO LEAVE DEATH AND DAMAGE

Shipping Paralyzed in Irish and North Seas—
Coast Guard Stations Taxed to Answer Numerous Calls for Help—Several Ships Crippled, One Foundering Off Scotland

LONDON, Oct. 28 (CP-Havas).—Furious gales whistled across Northern Europe tonight, leaving death, destruction and gripping tales of disaster at sea in their wake. High winds and mountainous seas, lashing crippled vessels and wreaking havoc on land, paralyzed shipping in parts of the North Atlantic and the Irish and North Seas as the death toll neared forty. Property damage was heavy.

British, German and other coast guard stations were taxed to answer calls for help.

The 7,347-ton British tanker Laurwood was reported drifting helplessly in the North Sea off the Prussian port of Brunsbüttel, about seventy miles northeast of Bremen.

Dispatches from Hamburg said searching continued for the 400-ton lightship Elbe I, which foundered off the mouth of the River Elbe with a loss of fifteen hands last night.

Three of the four survivors of the wreck of the 1,951-ton Latvian steamship Helene Paulbaum were in hospital at Glasgow tonight. The vessel hit a reef in Oban Bay, Western Scotland, and sank Monday night. The bodies of five other members of the crew were washed ashore. Nine still are missing.

GREEK SHIP DAMAGED
The 3,000-ton Greek steamer Giritli, out of Andros, ran aground east of Berville as she descended the Seine River bound for Stettin. She was refloated by tug boats and has to undergo repairs before she can continue the voyage.

Two fishermen were drowned at Sunderland and three persons killed at Glasgow yesterday as a result of the storm.

DELAIS TRIP
OVER OCEAN
Mollison Flies From New York to Harbor Grace—
Spending Night There

HARBOR GRACE, Nfld., Oct. 28 (CP).—Captain James A. Mollison postponed the second leg of his flight from New York to London tonight after scanning reports of unfavorable weather on his proposed route over the Atlantic.

The veteran British flyer rolled his monoplane into a hangar at Harbor Grace Airport and planned to spend the night here. Tomorrow, if weather conditions permit, he will try his fourth trans-Atlantic hop.

He brought his plane gracefully to earth at 4:28 p.m., A.S.T., after a flight from New York in six hours and forty-one minutes. His schedule called for an eastward take-off immediately after refueling, but he postponed his first west-to-east ocean attempt just before he was due to leave.

WEARS DINNER JACKET
A crowd, gathered to watch the landing, gasped when the intrepid aviator stepped nonchalantly from the plane in a dinner jacket only partially covered by his flying top.

Mollison's current flight is his first attempt to cross the Atlantic from west to east. He started out once before on a similar flight but abandoned it after a forced landing near Sydney, N.S.

He plans to set out on a record-breaking attempt from London to Capetown after resting a few days in the British capital.

BOY FOUND AFTER
LOST FIVE DAYS
Nine-Year-Old Wandered Away in Montana Mountains—Doing Well in Hospital

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 28 (AP).—Pitch-stained, hungry and tired, nine-year-old Murray Walkup Miller anguished between warm hospital blankets tonight after five days of wandering in Western Montana's rugged Sapphire Mountains.

The youngster was found early today by forest service employees. He was suffering from exposure and hunger, but physicians said his condition was not serious.

Murray, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller, of Stevensville, Mont., had wandered fifteen miles from where he left his stepfather last Saturday.

Youth Confesses Killing Two Years After Verdict Acquitted Him of Murder

Pleads Guilty to New Charge
Of Creating Public
Mischief

FALSELY ACCUSED
HIS GRANDMOTHER

WALKERTON, Ont., Oct. 28 (CP).—Hoodwinked of police and Crown authorities for two years as he kept the secret of Philip Stroth's Easter Sunday murder, handsome Earl Leffler was taken to Bruce County jail today—confessed killer. He can't be tried again for murder, unless a Crown appeal is granted.

Climaxing a case believed unique in Ontario criminal history, the nineteen-year-old Carleton Place farm boy was arrested a few minutes before a grand jury was scheduled to report on a murder indictment against Mrs. Mary Stroth, widow of the slain farmer and Leffler's grandmother.

His long-delayed confession was presented to the Assize Court several hours later. He pleaded guilty to creating a "public mischief" by accusing his grandmother of the murder. The new charge, laid under the common law of England, carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment.

Rejoining League Not in the Mind Of the Japanese

Will Not Be Considered Until Member Nations
Decide to Recognize Manchukuo and Threats
Of War in Europe End—Little Prospect
Of Fulfillment of Either Condition

GENEVA, Oct. 28 (AP).—Japan will not consider returning to the League of Nations until League members decide to recognize Japanese-sponsored Manchukuo, authoritative Japanese sources said tonight.

Furthermore, it was said in these quarters, Tokyo will think of rejoining the League, which she quit in March, 1933, until the existing threats of war in Europe are ended. Japan is not willing to accept the responsibilities, which membership entails under these circumstances.

RESTRAINING DEVELOPMENT
The recent neutrality declaration of King Leopold of Belgium, in which he indicated lack of faith in collective security principles as represented by the League and by regional alliances or mutual assistance agreements, is considered one development which would restrain any Japanese impulse to return to the League fold.

MOB PROTESTS ARREST OF TWO

Constable Bruised and Cut
When Going to Serve
Eviction Order

BURNABY, Oct. 28 (CP).—British Columbia Police said tonight they had dispersed a mob of some 100 men who milled around the municipal hall protesting the arrest of two men on obstruction and assault charges in connection with the serving of an eviction order.

Constable Ray Cummings suffered bruises and cuts yesterday when he went with Sheriff P. R. Cotton to serve an eviction order on a Neville Street tenant after trying to disperse several men who blocked their path. The sheriff was halted. Other officers were called and the arrests made.

CROWD GATHERS
Today the two men appeared for a remand at the municipal hall and a crowd quickly gathered outside.

The regular Burnaby force of twelve men, augmented with three guards from Oakalla Prison Farm, quickly dispersed the mob without violence, authorities said.

The two men held by the police are J. Nice, charged with assault on a police constable, and Thomas Gibbons, charged with obstructing the sheriff.

DEADLINE PASSED IN SHIP DISPUTE WITHOUT DECISION

False Policeman
Cannot Recognize
Proper Authority

DETROIT, Oct. 28 (CP).—William Hausman, special deputy sheriff, was standing at a street corner when a stranger walked up and said: "I'm a policeman." Whereupon he began going through Hausman's pockets. Hausman was dumbfounded, but the "policeman" even more so when he fished out Hausman's badge. He dropped it and ran.

Coastwise Operators and Unions Reach Agreement
At San Francisco, but Other Efforts to Avert
Big West Coast Maritime Walkout Apparently Fail, Although No Announcement

POLICE IN AMERICAN PORTS
Prepare for Extra Duties

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29 (AP).—The midnight deadline for calling a coast-wide maritime strike passed without announcement from the joint union negotiating committee, which apparently was awaiting outcome of conferences between Coast freight operators and seagoing unions.

Shortly before last midnight, when the strike call was due, the Sailors' Union of the Pacific announced tentative accord had been reached on a year's new agreement with the coastwise shippers which would raise wages $10 to $80 per month and provide a slight raise in overtime pay rates.

A little later it was unofficially announced similar accord had been reached with the firemen, and the coastwise operators continued conferences with cooks and stewards.

NO FURTHER NEGOTIATION
The Shipowners' Association of the Pacific, operators of the so-called Coast steam schooner trade, a separate organization from the deep sea lines, which announced last night further negotiations with unions would be "useless."

CHANGE VIEWS REGARDING WAR

British Laborites Now Favor
Aid to Spanish Government
Against Fascists

LONDON, Oct. 28 (CP).—The Labor party and the Trades Union Congress, in joint session today, decided aid should be given the Spanish Government in the civil war with the Fascist insurgents.

The decision represented a change in the stand of the Labor party, which voted at its annual conference early this month to support the Government in its non-intervention stand.

PASS RESOLUTION
A resolution passed at the joint conference said the right of the constitutionally elected Government of Spain to secure the means necessary to uphold its authority and enforce law and order in Spanish territory must be re-established.

The conference decided to call upon the British Government, in collaboration with the French Government, immediately to take the initiative in promoting an international arrangement completely to restore to Spain full commercial rights, including the purchase of munitions.

Such a move, the resolution said, would "enable the Spanish people to bring their heroic struggle for liberty and democracy to a victorious conclusion."

MASTER OF LINER PASSES SUDDENLY

Sir Edgar Britten Stricken Aboard
Queen Mary and Dies Shortly
After Attack

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 28 (CP).—Sir Edgar Britten, commander of R.M.S. Queen Mary and Commodore of the Cunard-White Star Line, died today in a nursing home to which he was taken following a stroke suffered in his cabin aboard the Queen Mary. He was sixty-two years old.

The seizure occurred two hours before the Queen Mary was due to sail for New York. An urgent message to Captain F. V. Peel, just starting a holiday with his wife at Chantiers Ford, brought him aboard a few minutes before sailing time. The liner was able to leave only a few minutes late.

Lady Britten was unable to reach her husband's bedside before he died.

At one time or another in his career, Sir Edgar commanded also the Campania, Lycia, Ascania, Saxonia, Peninsola, Andania, Laconia, Samaria and Berengaria. He was knighted in 1934.

UNITED STATES POPULATION
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (CP).—Estimating the country's population at 128,429,000 on July 1, the United States Census Bureau reported today this was an increase of 5,338,000 since 1930.

Spanish Government Claims Big Triumph In Bombing Airports

Reports Destruction of Five Bombers and of Hangars Where Planes Are Being Assembled
—Refugees Swelling Madrid's Population

MADRID, Oct. 28 (AP).—The Socialist Government tonight claimed "the most marked triumph" since the Spanish civil war began, with the bombing of the insurgent airports at Seville, Granada and Caceres.

Official reports said a Government squadron bombed a deadly rain of 225-pound bombs on Tabalada Air Field, Seville, destroying five Junkers bombers on the landing ground and nearby hangars where "planes were being repaired and where those recently delivered from foreign countries were being assembled."

In Madrid itself, however, weary defenders rationed food for the refugee-aggrieved population of 1,500,000 and mobilized 36,000 additional civilians for the front lines.

In addition to the Fascist armies tonight within ten miles of the capital, another army of bedraggled refugees from other areas increased the gravity of the Madrid situation.

NEW SOCIETY SHOWS 'MUMS

Japanese Amateur Chrysanthemum Growers Hold Interesting Exhibition

Some twenty-five varieties of chrysanthemums, all grown by Japanese, all grown out of doors, all grown by amateurs, but including some surprising developments which the Occidental grower has not thought of including in a similar display are shown in the highly interesting show staged by the Misokoni (Chrysanthemum) Society in the old St. Ann's Kindergarten hall at the corner of View and Blanshard Streets.

This society, numbering twenty-seven members, has been working quietly in preparation for this event, and in the limited space of balcony, porch, kitchen stairs, window or garden has brought to perfection glorious masses of bloom or superb individual flowers that rank with the finest hothouse specimens ever shown here.

The flowers are exhibited to great advantage against a standard Japanese backdrop of dark purple cloth with near-white panels on some of which appear the artistic Japanese characters. This cloth was ordered from Japan for this special purpose, and gives a distinctly "right" touch to a bloom which is essentially Japanese in origin and development. A continuous stream of visitors passed through the doors yesterday afternoon and evening, and the show will be open every afternoon and evening throughout the week.

THE JUDGES
Judging was done by Horace Whiteoak, of the Rockhome Gardens, and William C. Hamilton.

The best flower in a show notable for its handsome and novel blooms was a shaggy rose-pink chrysanthemum grown by the proprietor of the Togo Cleaners, Yates Street. With finely curled drooping petals, good size, and clean coloring, this was a new variety, recently imported from Japan.

The prize for the best box plant went to G. Ishiguro, St. Charles Street, whose entry was a "Colonel Buckingham," crimson and bronze reverse. There were eleven magnificent blooms in this entry.

Some of the secondary stems were trained horizontally or hung several feet below the rim of the box, very handsome with their burden of bloom and foliage. Wire and bamboo are used freely by the Japanese growers as supports for their plants.

PRIZE WINNERS
Following is a list of the prize winners, with the number of awards made to each.

First Prizes—G. Ishiguro, 8; E. Kuzume, 7; N. Watanabe, 3; K. Takahashi, 3, and H. Takata, J. Doi, C. Sonoda, S. Hennel and B. Kuwabara, 1 each.

Second Prizes—E. Kuzume, 10; N. Watanabe and C. Sonoda, 4 each; G. Ishiguro, 2, and J. Doi and K. Lee, 1 each.

Third Prizes—E. Kuzume, 8; S. Okamoto, K. Lee and K. Takahashi, 2 each; M. Kawasak, C. Sonoda, N. Watanabe and B. Kuwabara, 1 each.

YOUTH CONFESSES AFTER ACQUITTAL

Leffer, whose confession set out that he accidentally struck his six-year-old grandfather with an axe and killed him during a quarrel, was tried for murder here in November, 1934. He was acquitted.

Today he was listed as a Crown witness to testify against his grandmother, Mrs. Stroth, slender and grey-haired, was arrested last June after Leffer made a statement in which he named her as the killer. He was to describe the bitter quarrel he had said took place between the grandmothers with whom he lived.

A DRAMATIC CHARGE
But the trial scene changed quickly and dramatically. Upon instructions of Mr. Justice J. G. Makins, the boy was arrested, charged with creating a "public mischief." The grand jury returned a "no bill" against Mrs. Stroth, and Mr. Justice Makins discharged the sixty-six-year-old woman.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

For three generations one woman has told another how to "smile" with the E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature line up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three or four years of life. 1. Turning from childhood to womanhood. 2. year-old woman, without comment. (Under the Canadian Criminal Code, a person tried for murder and acquitted cannot be tried again, except where a Crown appeal is allowed and a new trial granted. No appeal was entered following Leffer's acquittal in 1934.)

THE ONLY CASE
What is believed to be the only case in the British Empire where a man once acquitted for murder was later tried, convicted and executed is that of Norman Pitre, hanged at Bathurst, N.B., June 1, 1933. In this case a Crown appeal was granted and the defendant was tried again on the same charge. The Attorney-General argued the trial judge had erred in excluding from evidence ballistics testimony and a letter written by Pitre.

An official in the Ontario Attorney-General's Department, Toronto, said he was unaware of another case like that of Leffer in the province's legal history.

Dr. John Howitt, of Hamilton, Ont., noted psychiatrist, will examine the youth before sentence is passed by Mr. Justice Makins. There was no indication tonight when sentence would be handed down, though it was believed likely it would be delayed until the assizes end late this week or early next week.

STRUCK WITH AXE
Leffer was seventeen years old when Philip Stroth's body was found near his Carleton Township home on April 1, 1934. The body had apparently been dragged some distance to the road and Provincial police established that the farmer was actually struck by an axe in his barn.

Arrested, Leffer appeared at the 1934 Fall Assizes in Walkerton and was acquitted.

Last June, more than eighteen months after his acquittal, the boy signed a statement naming his grandmother as the slayer. The statement said the woman forced him to help her carry Stroth's body from the barn to the road. On the strength of the statement, Mrs. Stroth was arrested and charged with the murder.

ADMITTED FINAL BLOW
Leffer made a final statement, admitting he himself struck his grandfather the final blow, in September.

Leffer stated in the confession his grandfather was on the point of punishing him with a piece of harness when he picked up an axe and accidentally struck him. Stroth, the statement said, was angry with the boy for breaking a padlock on a gate.

Nearly 4,000 Men Off Direct Relief

MONTREAL, Oct. 28 (AP)—Leopold Doyon, of the Provincial Department of Labor, said today nearly 4,000 men have been taken off direct relief rolls in the metropolitan district since inauguration less than three weeks ago of the present unemployment relief works programme financed by Quebec and Ottawa.

Canadians Gather in Half-Million From Sweepstake Prizes

Farmer, Railway Conductor, Barber and Milkman Become Wealthy Overnight When Horses Flash Past the Winning Post at Newmarket

(By the Canadian Press)
FLYING hooves of English thoroughbreds combined today with the Irish Sweepstakes' whirling drums to scatter more than $500,000 across Canada. About $200,000 in "luck money" was already earmarked for Canadian spending before post time in the Cambridgeshire Handicap.

Fifty-one tickets on horses—each worth $2,986 regardless of the result—had been drawn for residents of the Dominion, along with seventy-five consolation prizes of $500 each.

But the biggest shares in this pot-of-chance gold were tagged for various addresses when Dan Bulger came thundering through the stretch at Newmarket yesterday, with Daytona at his heels and Laureat II third.

In Edmonton, Walter Snowden, farmer, watched the news flash come in that added $75,000 to the $10,000 he had already banked for a half-share in his ticket on the pre-race favorite. C. W. Lutes, retired railroad conductor, of Enfield, N.S., said he was the other Canadian to hold a ticket—worth $150,000—on the winner. Snowden, who bought his chance "on a hunch," said he knew the horse wouldn't fail him.

A Lethbridge, Alta., barber, James Westbrook, can put away his clippers if he wants to, because he held the only ticket in Canada on Daytona, the second horse. It is worth $75,000.

Milk Salesman Arthur Kirk, in Leamington, Ont., has decided to sell his share of about $30,000 and to take his share of about $30,000 and to take his share of about $30,000. A neighbor, with whom he had an agreement, gets a third of Kirk's net proceeds. Albert Ecclestone, of Bracebridge, Ont., likewise held a ticket on the third horse. He also is reported to have sold a half-share.

Death Lurks Below When Dance Is On

WADENA, Sask., Oct. 28 (AP)—While dancers celebrated the wedding of his niece in a barn last night, Steve Lyeshin, sixty-four, was trampled to death today by horses in a stall below. Steve's wife noticed his lengthy absence and when she went to look for him, she found him lying in the stall, his skull fractured and his chest crushed in.

DEADLINE PASSED WITHOUT DECISION

would have on the threatened strike could not immediately be learned. The shipowners rejected not only the conditions proposed by the unions but also refused to consider the workers' "solid front" demands which prevented any union from accepting the necessary examinations required by the association and to be registered with the association.

Paralysis began spreading along the waterfronts. Police in San Francisco, Los Angeles and other Coast cities prepared for extra duty in the event of trouble.

Previously some union circles had expressed the belief that only presidential intervention could avert a seafaring strike which would involve 35,000 men and tie up West Coast shipping.

READY FOR TIE-UP
SEATTLE, Oct. 28 (AP)—Ship operators and shipping interests made ready tonight to cease all activity on the waterfront in the event a maritime tie-up became effective at midnight.

The Waterfront Employers' Association said there would be no attempt to move cargo or ships at this port if the break came between employers and the maritime unions.

By morning, there will be at least fifteen ships at berths where they will remain indefinitely, unless something entirely unexpected should avert the projected strike, the association said. Most of the ships were moved to berths tonight, ready for a lay-up or to resume operations, depending on the turn of events.

TO STRIKE AT NEW YORK
NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—A crowd of seamen, estimated by police at 1,000, voted at a meeting sponsored by the seamen's defense committee tonight to call a strike in the port of New York if West Coast seamen did not reach an agreement with employers by midnight there.

Joseph Curran, chairman of the committee, a left-wing group which broke away from the International Seamen's Union because of dissatisfaction with a union contract, said he thought the threatened West Coast strike would be averted, but that if it occurred, it would be serious.

INJURED WHILE DOING REPAIRS

Gordon Cavin in Hospital—Indians Arrested After Police Guns Used

CAMPBELL RIVER, Oct. 28 (AP)—Gordon Cavin was in hospital today with injuries suffered when struck by an automobile on the Island Highway near Oyster Bay and two Indians were held by British Columbia Police at Courtenay on charges of drunkenness and of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Cavin said he was repairing his machine at the side of the highway when struck by an automobile in which the Indians, Tom Smith and Bob Roberts, were allegedly riding.

Constables Douglas Morris, of Courtenay, and M. N. McAlpine, of Campbell River, attempted to stop the Indians, but they escaped into the bush at the side of the road after the officers had fired two shots at them.

The officers waited, however, and captured the men about an hour later as they returned to the road.

ITALY AND PORTUGAL CLEARED OF CHARGES OF VIOLATING PACT

Non-Intervention Committee, With Russia Objecting, Finds No Arms and Munitions Supplied to Spanish Rebels—Lisbon Refuses to Accept Proposal to Control Portuguese Ports

LONDON, Oct. 28 (AP).—The international "hands-off-Spain" committee tonight acquitted both Italy and Portugal of charges of violation of the non-intervention agreement despite strenuous Russian objections. Three separate votes on the various charges were taken and in each case the "acquittal" was unanimous except for Russia's dissent.

The Earl of Plymouth, chairman of the committee, took the initiative before the body and said the charges against Italy that she had supplied arms and munitions to Spanish Fascists, either:

Referred to what happened before the agreement went into effect, or had not been proved, or were not violations.

THREE VOTES TAKEN

The three votes were taken on:

1. Italy's reply to charges by Russia she had supplied war materials to the insurgents in Spain.

2. Charges by the Spanish Government against Portugal that she had aided the insurgents.

3. Russian allegations charging both Portugal and Italy with sending in arms and ammunition.

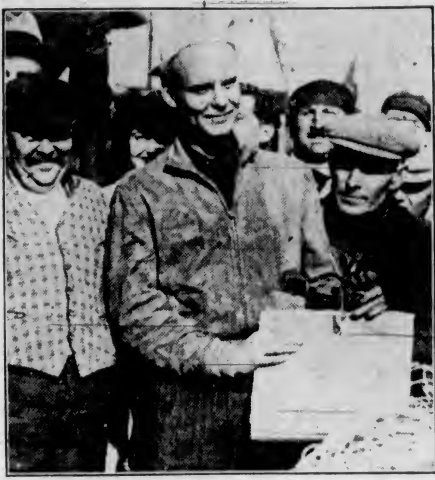

These developments within the committee in its lengthy sessions today were disclosed in a communique issued before midnight.

PORT CONTROL REJECTED

This communique also disclosed the Portuguese representative on the committee declined to accept Russia's proposal for control of Portuguese ports by naval vessels of one or more of the member nations of the committee.

Ivan Malsky, Russian Ambassador to London, told the committee Russia would combine its control proposal with a proposal made today by Lord Plymouth for control of Span-only concern was to prevent the Spanish civil war from spreading into an international conflict.

Fears Russia would bolt the committee were dispelled by Malsky, who declared:

"The sub-committee meets Monday and the full committee, Wednesday. I shall be there."

Charles Corbin, French Ambassador to London, said France was willing to accept anything that would make the agreement effective.

This setback to Russian allegations came after charges and counter-charges had been made by rival camps for weeks.

It is expected Russia will reply to Italian charges of Russian violations of the neutrality pact at next week's meeting.

Today's session was marked by clashes between Malsky and Francisco Calheiros, Portuguese delegate. Dino Grandi, Italian Ambassador to London, and Prince Otto von Bismarck, German charge d'affaires, and Calheiros all insisted the Russian reply "clarifying" Russia's threat to quit the committee still left the situation in doubt.

Grandi said it was essential to be certain Russia was adhering to the pact before proceeding further.

Lord Plymouth asserted Britain's

Crowds continue to throng Bay Street Armories where the Tourist Trade Development Association's second annual Winter Fair is in progress. It will remain open from 2 o'clock in the afternoon to midnight, daily until Saturday. The modernistic booths, attractive displays of merchandise and home products, novel entertainment features and a gay midway serve to create a carnival spirit at the big indoor exhibition.

From 2:30 to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. Foulds, of the B.C. Electric Home Service Department, demonstrated a number of simple but attractive recipes to a large audience seated before the stage. Demonstrations will continue at the same time every afternoon.

BABY SEXTETTE

During the evening, the Show Boat Baby Sextette in charge of Mrs. C. W. Holden gave a colorful number entitled "Sons of the Sea," originally arranged for the visit of H.M.S. Apollo. Dressed in white sailor costumes, the tiny girls emerged on the stage from a cardboard model of the cruiser. They were supported by Mrs. Florence Noel, who sang several numbers, and Miss Maile Griffin and Vernon Miller, dancers. As an encore, the sextette gave a number entitled "Caroline."

Girls in the cast are Evelyn McLaren, Gloria Holden, Mavis Ockenden, Ethel Stickney, Barbara Wilson, and Kathleen Schofield. They were seen at 7:30 o'clock this evening in "Waltz in Vienna" and "Cod Fish Ball." Other numbers were given by a pierrot and prierette, cowboy and Indian and Curley's Harmonious Harvesters.

WHITE PAPER ISSUED ANSWERING CRITICISM

The statement said the four firms supplying the Air Ministry's requirements were Armstrong-Whitely, Bristol Aeroplanes, Napier and Rolls-Royce. The Government, in its expansion scheme, decided against a multiplicity of types and selected engines of high quality performance. Provision of necessary engines for the expansion programme was well within the capacity of these firms, and delivery of engines now being made was very satisfactory.

REFERS TO INTERVIEW

The statement referred to an interview November 27, 1935, amongst Viscount Swinton, Secretary for Air, Lord Weir, a former director-general of aircraft production and president of the Air Council, and Lord Nuffield, who is chairman of Morris Motors, Ltd., and other firms.

Lord Nuffield expressed anxiety at the meeting about the lack of preparedness of supplies and of arrangements for the production of airplane engines.

Lord Swinton and Lord Weir declared that the introduction of a fifty-engine firm would be welcome on the ground of its production experience, but they said that Lord Nuffield's Wolseley airplane firm specialized in engines of lower horsepower than those required by the Air Ministry for military purposes.

THE ADOPTED PLAN

Under the 1936 expansion programme it was decided to produce a large number of Bristol-type engines, largely for reserve. Therefore the Government resolved to bring in outside firms. Under the production scheme, it was arranged that Wolseley should co-operate with six other firms in manufacturing parts for Bristol engines.

Lord Nuffield, however, desired to construct 2,000 complete Bristol engines. Lord Austin, chairman of the

A STATE OF ALARM

Premier Aberhart, of Alberta, denies that it is because of any action of his Government that there is an exodus of capital from the Province. He admits that money is leaving Alberta. In showing why this is taking place, The Edmonton Journal reports that "the principal and interest on mortgages would be reduced in amount by provincial legislation." It says that in a little more than two months Mr. Aberhart had the Legislature pass "the precise sort of bill he had said never would be passed." The Journal then enumerates the various steps which, in its estimation, has led to a state of alarm, one aspect of which is the flight of capital. These are as follows:

"1. The interest guaranteed on Alberta bonds was reduced by approximately 50 per cent from June 15 last.

"2. At the regular session of the Legislature last Spring, a bill was passed, that has not yet been proclaimed, authorizing the Government to substitute perpetual stock, not redeemable for thirty-five years, for outstanding Alberta bonds that called for payment in cash at various stated periods.

"3. At the special session during the Summer an act was passed which provided for the reduction of the principal of private debts contracted prior to July 1, 1932, by the amount of interest paid in the meanwhile and for the payment of the remaining principal in annual instalments during the ten years following November 15, 1937, with no interest to be payable in that period. This was done in disregard of and contrary to the terms specified in mortgages and other documents relating to the debts.

"4. The Alberta Credit House Act gave the Cabinet the power to 'vary, add to or supplement' its provisions without further reference to the Legislature, thus opening the door to sudden and far-reaching extensions of that Act.

"5. In three separate acts passed at the special Summer session the century-old right of appeal to the courts was further restricted.

"6. Cabinet Ministers and Government members have made various threats in public addresses as to unspecified things that were going to happen to manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and others who opposed Government policies.

"7. Intolerance of organizations and individuals who presumed to criticize policies of the Government has been manifested frequently by its members. Thus the Premier intimated that organizations like the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce should be 'seen and not heard.'

"8. The threat to license the press is interpreted by many as likely to be carried out only if the Government proposes to do things which it does not want the public to know about."

U.S. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

In 1932 Mr. Roosevelt polled 59.7 per cent of the vote cast in the United States for the election of a President. Most forecasts of the result of next week's poll give him a majority. But a recent one, The American people who take their politics with the utmost gusto, have been reveling in the straw votes organized in many quarters. These, in the main, give Rooseveltian majorities, and as seen by outsiders there seems little doubt that the election will result in a Democratic victory and that Mr. Roosevelt will be assured another four-year term of power. Straw votes are participated in by only an infinitesimal fraction of the population, but they are believed to show the direction of a political wind.

If President Roosevelt is re-elected it will be as much a triumph for his personality as for his policies. It is, as a matter of fact, in spite of his policies and not because of them that a measure of prosperity has been restored to the United States. That country has participated in the general world recovery due to conditions over which Mr. Roosevelt has no control, and it may be recalled that most of his policies embodied in the New Deal were suggested by the courts. To the extent, therefore, that the United States is emerging from an era of depression many of the policies associated with the President's name were unnecessary. The permanence of the recovery will depend on international conditions, not on the profligate expenditures made in the United States so as to bolster up industry by subsidies and in other ways.

BLACKS AND REDS

The British Parliament will have lost its sense of humor if it attempts to interfere with the sartorial appearance of political fanatics. The suggestion is that something should be done to prevent the Fascists of the realm from wearing black shirts. That would be a retrograde step, for this color, if color it can be called, is more easily maintained in a pure appearance than white, or cream, or yellow, or any of the lighter strains. In a physical sense it is not what people wear but how they wear that matters most. In a political sense the Fascist doctrine may be as black as their shirts, but what people are interested in is how it will stand the test of time. Its appeal has no sartorial significance, because no one from choice would wear a black shirt, even for mourning purposes. No one has been at pains to explain to what extent the Fascists keep their shirts spotless, but even if they do, as Tennyson wrote:

What profits now to understand
The merits of a spotless shirt—
A dapper boot—a little hand—
If half the little soul is dirt.

It would be as politically unwise to tell the Fascists—the kind of shirts they shall not wear as it would be to decree that poets in whose eyes there is a fine frenzy rolling should get their hair cut. After all, the distinguishing garb of Fascism has the order to keep watch and ward and insure that the exponents of the creed "keep their shirts on," and if there was not the distinctive coloration this would be more difficult. No one has ever suggested that Communists should be banned by the law from wearing red ties. The truth is that it is an excellent thing that they do, for red has for so long been associated with danger signals.

AN EXPANDING EMPIRE

Almost unnoticed a very considerable area has been added to the British Empire, and its bounds are being set wider still and wider. A recent proclamation at Canberra added to the Commonwealth an area as big as the Island Continent itself in the assumption of control of all Antarctica south of the 60th parallel between 160 degrees and 45 degrees east longitude, except Adelle Land, which is under French control. As well, northward from Thursday Island and Papua another tract stretching to the Equator and comprising the mandated territory of New Guinea and adjacent islands together with the Bismarck Archipelago and the two northwestern Solomon Islands have been added to Australian jurisdiction.

This addition of territory will add hardly at all to population, but very substantially to square mileage. Australia proper is almost as large as the United States with 2,974,581 square miles, but the population is still under 7,000,000. Writing in the October number of United Empire, Mr. Taylor Darbyshire says that since Captain Cook first linked the games of Australia and Antarctica together by his explorations and discoveries in the South Pacific, the South Polar regions have "somehow been a sort of heritage of Australia." The added commitments give Australia new reason for greater military and naval strength to protect a vast territory.

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS

In Great Britain it is being found that there is danger in short sentences for young offenders. It is being pointed out that magistrates are falling to learn the lessons of experience. During 1935 no fewer than 2,380 offenders between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one were sent to prison, and of these 1,258 were committed for less than one month. These short sentences did not prove deterrents to crime. They had the effect of familiarizing young offenders, by easy stages, with prison conditions, and during their experience there was no wholesale training or reformatory influences put to work. The lesson is that the existing system of thrusting homeless and young and penniless persons on the streets straight from prison is not a success, that, on the other hand, it tends towards the manufacturing of criminals. The plea is for supervision of young offenders, for the giving of longer sentences, during the serving of which reformatory influences are set at work, and release should be followed by a period of guidance and efforts to set the juvenile offenders on the right path.

History may be taught for a variety of purposes. It can be the means of promoting patriotism, or internationalism, or imperialism, or anti-Semitism, or militarism, or pacifism, or Catholicism, or Communism, and, indeed, much else. For what purpose is it being taught in the schools of British Columbia? The textbook on the curriculum of the High Schools dealing with civilization in Europe is an American product, and the trend of that civilization is visualized through American eyes. There are other textbooks on the subject that could be of greater value from the Canadian standpoint. After all there are those who know more about European history than American textbook writers. There are more impartial reviews, and history should be an impartial and dispassionate subject. To regard it otherwise is dishonest thinking.

FROST SONG

Here where the bee slept and the orchid lifted
Her honeying pipes of pearl, her velvet lip,
Only the swart leaves of the oak lie drifted
In a sombre fellowship
Here where the flame-weed set the lands alight,
Lies the bleak upland, webbed and crowned with white.
Build high the logs, O love, and in thine eyes
Let me believe the Summer lingers late.
We shall not miss her passive pageantries,
We are not desolate.
When on the hill, across the window bars,
Kind Winter flings her flowers and her stars.
—Marjorie: Piekthall.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

The British Columbia Legislature has an economical and sure-fire method of choosing its pages, hiring the boys that will fit the uniforms in three dimensions, length, breadth and depth, as it were. Under this arrangement, boys recommended for the position are eligible up to a height of five feet four inches; a breadth of reasonable proportions; and of a depth or girth that does not put too great a strain upon the silver buttons.

Boys being what they are, inevitably reach that stage where they are taller than five feet four inches, and then there is a vacancy on the roster of pages—a blank page, so to speak. Thus, inching upward in life, pages come and pages go in a progressive if democratic succession through the same uniforms. Once every ten years the uniforms are renewed; the light blue suits with red facings in use now having been christened Spring, with nine hard years ahead of them still.

And what a sensible arrangement it is! Supposing, now, the Province as a body corporate could be confined and compressed into a measured suit of money bills, with $5 gold pieces for the buttons. The size of our income would determine the size of the suit, and we would have balanced budgets forever. At present, it would be a $25,000,000 suit, or thereabouts, that limit corresponding to the five foot four inches of the page boys.

But Governments do not work that way. For one reason or another, they have insisted upon an extensible suit for the body corporate; one that can be blown up; one that extended almost indefinitely; one that will take a bulge this way, or incline that way; one, in fact, that can be made to fit almost any kind of financial weather. And, sometimes, it puts a strain upon the buttons of the suit; not that they pop or anything like that, but just that they are stretched very tight.

Looking at it fairly, the Province, as a corporate body, has alarming biological tendencies. This branch or member starts out as quite a little thing; grows to sizable proportions in a few years; and becomes a very giant in size after a little leeway and a few budgets. That department once had revenues far exceeding income; then rubbed along on a nearly balanced ledger; and now, perhaps, requires assistance so that it will not match income without bursting the buttons on the suit.

Perhaps a more correct analogy of what happens would be the lizard, which molts its entire skin, taking ever a larger and a larger size of suit, until its last and final casting. Under political influences, the third button has become a chamber of bursting red and green by turns as the surroundings seem to indicate.

This is not the fault of Parliament entirely. It is rather the strange and incontrovertible fact that governmental systems seem to enlarge and grow by a form of cell-division, adding rings and layers to the body politic, until the original suit will not fit at all. Why not a size limit for provincial budgets? Why not a one-piece suit into which everything must go, and of a cloth and cut that can be readily afforded by the people who pay for the suit?

If we can afford a $25,000,000 suit, let us have a $25,000,000 suit. But if we can afford only a $25,000,000 one, why try to wear a $25,000,000 one? Of course, in emergent times, one must take the clothes one finds at hand; but emergencies pass, and some day we will be setting out to buy ourselves a brand new suit of clothes again, only with ingrained habits of selecting the $25,000,000 variety.

Every time I see a page rushing with a message along the august corridors of the Legislative Buildings, I fear for the third button. The third button has become identified for me as that point at which the suit will some day pop, if girth keeps on increasing. Three dimensional limits are necessary to a tailor. How about three dimensional finance, including the costs of yesterday, the costs of today and the anticipated costs of tomorrow? A little reducing exercise might work wonders, because mainly it is a case of big-feeling.

Spring Is Here

Anyone who doubts the perennial Springtime this is characteristic of Victoria need only take a hike over some of the skyline hills to the West, where wild strawberries and blackberry plants and purple violets have been seen blooming freely within the past few days.

A Comparison

A movie publicity department is reported to have paid $12,000 for a welcome to Dick Powell and Joan Blondell in New York upon their recent marriage. This is quite a contrast to the welcome extended to the stars on their triumphant return to Hollywood from Reno—W. I. F.

Now They Keep 'Em On

We are glad to see the custom of men taking off their hats in elevators while women are present is gradually dying out. We never could see any sense in the practice. From a Victoria iron-worker's letterhead: "John Doe, Manager." Does it mean he makes iron managers? . . . In order to find out whether youngsters were patting as a whole, a "Timmia, Ontario, newspaper gave away 5,000 blotters. Of those who called for them, 1,984 said "Thank you"; 1,227 said "Thank you very much"; 79 grabbed a blotter and said, "I'll see 'em'." (The "em" was "them.")

In my humble opinion I believe Christ will appear with the coming crisis, but before He appears in this modern world today He will have agents here first, and we will be surprised at who He will choose for His agents. I am very doubtful if any of us are accepted by the churches, and He may choose some very humble souls of no earthly importance. Those that wait His coming need not fear. Those that have exploited His name will not believe in His final appearance.

"THE BIBLE AND SCIENCE"

Sir—Concluding my letter of the 8th inst. on the above subject; we read in Job xxxviii, 35: "Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, here we are?" Lightning, the only word the Hebrews had for electricity, foretelling the sending of messengers by wire and wireless.

Again in Job xxxviii, 19: "Where is the way where light dwelleth?" Note that it does not say "the place" where light dwelleth, for light dwelleth not in any one place but travels, or, as the way constantly at the rate of 186,000 miles per second.

Once more Job xxxviii, 22-23: "Hast thou entered into the treasures of the hail, which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?" The Bible knew that the latest explosive called "T.N.T." only possible to be made with the purest snow water and only possible to be safely packed and shipped in ice the size of hail stones. It is in war no doubt, the Sir John Herschel said: "All human knowledge that not even the condenser of Governor London and the Republican party is equal to the strength and popularity of President Roosevelt. Time will tell the outcome of this election, one of the greatest battles in the political history of the United States. But when the votes are counted and the shouts of the election battle have died away, we think that P. D. Roosevelt will still be President of the United States of America—S. T.

New Westminster Election—THREE candidates are now in the field in New Westminster for its representation in the House of Commons. Dr. Chisholm, John Kirkland and J. J. Trapp. A convention meets in New Westminster on Wednesday next to nominate a candidate.

Letters to Editor

No letter to the editor will be inserted except on the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception. No letter should exceed 500 words in length.

"ANXIETY"

Sir—Congratulations, dear Editor, on your splendid editorial in Sunday's Colonist, October 25, namely, "Anxiety." I hope you will allow me a few humble words concerning this.

Strange as it is, we never recognize our own anxiety. In times of danger only do we call on Him for mercy. We have been worshipping the almighty dollar down through the ages; now it is fast disappearing and we are getting anxious of what next. When we have plenty, we laugh and sneer at His holy name. Mankind is not to blame for these selfish ways. It is the misleading way we think of Christianity, and the consequence is we have become too self-important, little gods in ourselves, with no thought or regard for our fellow man.

In my humble opinion I believe Christ will appear with the coming crisis, but before He appears in this modern world today He will have agents here first, and we will be surprised at who He will choose for His agents. I am very doubtful if any of us are accepted by the churches, and He may choose some very humble souls of no earthly importance. Those that wait His coming need not fear. Those that have exploited His name will not believe in His final appearance.

"Behold the eye of the Lord is on them that fear Him; upon those who hope in His mercy. To deliver their souls from death, and keep their souls from famine, our souls waiteth for the Lord; He is our hope and shield."

"Yea, though I walk through the Valley in the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." Ps. xlii.

Only with misinterpretations of the Bible find it that the earth is flat. Those who read it aright find in it that the earth is round. Twenty-six thousand years ago Isaiah xl, 22 said: "It is He that stretcheth upon the circle (sphere) of the earth" (see also Proverbs viii, 27). In Luke xlv, 34-36 the Lord makes the roundness of the earth plain.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily British Colonist of October 28, 1886:

Rifle Shooting—A rifle competition will take place at the Clover Point range tomorrow afternoon among members of the militia of Victoria for the possession of the "Fleming Cup." A trophy presented by the late Captain Fleming, of Fraser River fame. The presentation of the cup was made many years ago to the colonel-in-chief, the Hon. the Earl of Dufferin, who presented it to the militia. The competition will be participated in by the militia at New Westminster as well as at Victoria, on their own range. The highest individual score being the winner for the season year. The shooting will commence at 10 o'clock at the 300 and 600-yard ranges, seven

Government Urged To Extend Health Insurance Scheme

Farmers, Prospectors and Others Should Be Covered, Legislature Told by Mover of Address—Reference to Toll Bridge Unhappy Incident

SPEAKING as mover of the Address in Reply at a forty-minute sitting of the British Columbia Legislature yesterday afternoon, Mathew M. Connelly, Liberal member for Omineca, urged the Government to extend the British Columbia Health Insurance Act to cover farmers, prospectors and others who run one-man businesses. Government policy, however, was nowhere foreshadowed in the debate.

In a twenty-minute speech in which he acquitted himself manfully of an initial effort, Mr. Connelly thanked the administration for building roads in Omineca, suggested governmental action to lower freight rates on livestock shipped from the interior, and predicted that necessity for relief would end in his riding next year.

REFERS TO BRIDGE

John H. Forester, Liberal member for the second seat in Vancouver-Burrard, following to second the motion, was met with stony silence after the sole reference to the Fraser River toll bridge made during the day. Mr. Forester spoke of the bridge as a stately monument to the Premier and the Minister of Public Works, but dropped the subject abruptly when even whips and deputy whips on the Government side failed to respond.

In a twenty-minute speech, which was also his maiden effort, Mr. Forester told of the work of the various departments of the province, and had praise for them all. His election, he suggested, had been a complete endorsement of the administration. British Columbia had maintained its autonomy, conserved its finances, and experienced marked improvement in industry. Now aid was to be given to the municipalities, which should pass on any benefits received to their taxpayers, he concluded.

Rev. Robert Connell, leader of the Opposition, adjourned debate in a featureless day, and will speak shortly after the House opens at 2:30 p.m. today. Premier Pattullo moved adjournment for the day at 3:30 p.m., forty minutes after the sitting commenced. Other than debate, the sole action taken was appointment of L. A. Hanna, M.P.P., as deputy speaker.

HAS YOUR HOME A COLD HEARTH?

Perhaps this is exaggerated, but a cold hearth makes you feel like this couple looks. When your home is heated throughout by good NANAIMO-WELLINGTON and COMOX Coals, famous for their heat value, this situation could not arise. And it really costs you less than inferior fuels because these Island Coals are rich in B.T.U.'s (heat units) and noted for their long-burning qualities. For genial warmth in your home, insist on knowing the real B.T.U. value of your fuel.

British Army Team Coming to Canada

some length, attacking the city's action.

P. R. Leighton appears on behalf of a number of other persons who are charged with having violated the rule of keeping more than two cows. C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, will have a reply to offer and, judging by the documentary material which he has at hand, his address to the court will occupy considerable time.

CITY LACKS POWER

The amendment under which the city proceeded "in these cases," Mr. Patton pointed out, was alleged to be an amendment to the health by-law. The province, however, had a health board which under its constitution could operate drastically in the matter of health so that the move by the city was not necessary, and the city could not intervene where the situation was taken care of by the Dominion or the province.

Moreover, Mr. Patton contended, while the city might regulate in certain lines, it could not prohibit, and this was what the by-law did. The keeping of cows, which meant the production of milk for sale, was a matter dealt with by the Dominion under the heading of trade and commerce. The city's action, he said, was discriminatory in the matter of the production of milk.

Council for Owners Contends City Regulations Clash With Other Enactments

The argument with regard to the validity of the city by-law which forbids the keeping of more than two cows by an individual owner within the city limits, is now in progress before Police Magistrate Henry C. ### PILOTAGE HEAD IS APPOINTED

Capt. Claxton Fills Vacancy Caused by Retirement of Capt. Saunders

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Appointment of Captain C. Claxton, West Vancouver, as supervisor of pilots for British Columbia was announced today at the Department of Marine. The appointment fills a vacancy created by the retirement of the former supervisor.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—Captain Cecil Claxton, West Vancouver, appointed supervisor of pilots for British Columbia, served for many years on the trans-Pacific passenger lines of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited.

Born and educated in England, he joined the S.S. Monticello in 1910. He served in practically all the company's ships in capacities ranging from fourth to chief officer, and for a time was staff captain of the R.M.S. Empress of Japan. He retired in 1934.

In January, 1935, he joined for active service and served as chief officer of H.M.S. Loyalty (ex-Empress of Japan), April, 1935, to April, 1936, when he rejoined the Canadian Pacific fleet.

As supervisor of pilots he succeeds Captain F. T. Saunders, who retired on superannuation.

SIGNBOARDS HAVE DESTROYED CHARM

Californian Urges Island Not to Permit Roads to Be Flanked as in His State

A word of warning to Vancouver Island is contained in a letter sent to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau by a prominent citizen of Sacramento, who spent his holidays here last summer.

He writes: "It required only a very few years of intensive advertising for tourists to destroy the natural charm of California. Today, although we have thousands of miles of magnificent highways superior to yours, ours are flanked on all sides by signboards and hot-dog stands, yours wander through miles of virgin forests second to none in the world."

"We have highly commercialized hotels, shrewd shopkeepers skilled in separating the tourist from his money, and an antagonistic attitude toward tourists in general. As contrasted with this a stranger in your land is surprised to find that your people are trusting, honest, charming and hospitable. Your Island has a charm of its own; the quaintness of Victoria is delightful."

"This letter was not requested, and it certainly is not intended for publication, but as one who is very much in love with your magnificent Island, I implore you to consider the values that will probably be destroyed if you succeed in filling your roads with 'rubber-neck' wagons in order to fill the coffers of your merchants with tourist dollars."

PEOPLE LIMIT OWN ABILITY

R. E. Knowles Says Self-Consciousness Keeps Many Behind

Interviewing celebrities from every walk of life for the last sixteen years has given R. E. Knowles, feature writer of The Toronto Star, an unusual insight into human nature.

One of his conclusions, as he outlined it yesterday in an interview at the Empress Hotel, where he is registered with Mrs. Knowles, is that people generally limit themselves by underestimating their abilities and being too self-conscious. "They don't rely on their wings," he contended.

DELIGHTS IN WORK

For seventeen years, Mr. Knowles was minister of Knox Church in Galt, Ont., then the largest Presbyterian Church in Canada. Illness forced him to give up work for a time. Later he went in for newspaper writing. For him newspaper interviewing and feature writing are constant delights. Every interview kindles a new fire in his breast, and he becomes a conversationalist of real interest, drawing out his subject.

Known as a brilliant writer, the newspaperman believes accounts, interviews and feature stories must sparkle, almost scintillate, with every adjective playing its part and each verb giving the exact action. He is an ardent champion of the Bible and the works of Thomas Carlyle in these he has found much help and recommends both for aspiring writers.

Everyone has a story, in Mr. Knowles' opinion, although he is assigned to cover only those with front-page names. He has interviewed four Prime Ministers of England, politicians, sportsmen and many of the leading speed kings of the world, including the late Sir Henry Seagrave, whom he considered a man of sterling worth; Mr. Knowles has come to expect assignments that necessitate his rushing hundreds of miles across the continent or flying to New York or Washington, D.C., to interview distinguished American political leaders, and converse with technical experts.

UNUSUAL WORK

Mr. Knowles is one of his paper's best boosters. He considers The Star to be one of the most enterprising of newspapers, and yesterday he told, with a laugh, of being assigned to obtain a telephone interview with Mae West, screen actress. The wire from Toronto to Hollywood was kept open for some time. On another occasion he broadcast a story from Washington to Toronto through a telephone, thence over radio for Canadian listeners. He has also carried on an interview over the trans-Atlantic cable.

The newspaperman expects to attend the inauguration of the President of the United States next year and to be present at the King's Coronation ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowles plan to stay in Victoria for possibly three weeks. It is purely a holiday visit, Mr. Knowles explained.

SPEAKERS ADDRESS LIBERAL MEETING

F. W. Davey and Archie McKinnon, physical director of the Y.M.C.A., were the guest speakers at the regular meeting of Ward Four Liberals in the association's headquarters last night.

Members were notified they must have their membership cards by November 5, in order to vote in the central executive elections at the Chamber of Commerce, November 19. It was decided to hold the next meeting November 12 as the regular meeting night falls on Remembrance Day, November 11.

In advocating the building of the West Coast Road to Port Renfrew,

Mr. Davey emphasized the fact that it would make available the marketing of eight billion feet of lumber, which would more than cover the cost of the road, aside from its value as a tourist attraction. The estimated cost of the road would be $30,000 per mile for a twenty-two-foot roadway. Mr. Davey said. Mr. McKinnon outlined his journey to the Olympic Games in Berlin, adding many interesting sidelights of the sports.

SIKH TEMPLE IS PARTY IN TRIAL

Charge of Disturbing Religious
Exercises is Laid Against East
Indian Here

With the Sikh Temple appearing as a party to the dispute which has arisen over an alleged assault in which East Indians are concerned, today has been set for hearing of the proceedings. The original case of assault in which Hajar and Katar Singh are charged with having assaulted Bara Singh was met by a counter charge laid by the defendants in the assault charge that Bara
Singh had used grossly insulting language towards them.

Yesterday morning in the police court, Gordon Cameron, acting for the Sikh Temple, instituted proceedings against Bara Singh on a charge of having disturbed the gathering in the temple which had assembled for worship.

A plea of not guilty was entered by Bara Singh, who is represented by W. P. Lawson as counsel. The latter asked for an adjournment until today, when the assault charge, he pointed out, would be heard, and which was in a measure related to this new charge.

Mr. Cameron wished to proceed with his charges, but the magistrate felt that Mr. Lawson was entitled to an adjournment. R. C. Lowe appeared for the defendants in the assault case.

Mitchell, also of Lachute Mills.

Voters' List—Mr. Frank Hunter, city clerk, called attention to the fact yesterday that many householders had not registered for the civic voters' list. The City Hall will be kept open until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon before the list closes. T. G.
Harris, license collector, announced his office will also be open until 5 o'clock to receive business licences and road and poll taxes.

Another Article—Another interesting article from the pen of Frank Gloima, writer for the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, has appeared in the current issue of Canada's Weekly, which has a large cir-

Island, is captioned "The Forbidden carved stone balustrade from Westminster, the seat of the Imperial Parliament, is now in the hands of provincial architects, as the gift of the Empire Parliamentary Association to British Columbia. Like a stone picket from a balcony railing, the balustrade may be set up in the grounds of the Legislative Building as a pedestal to hold a floral urn, as there is no way in which it can be incorporated into the building,

it was explained.

Superfluity Sale—By courtesy of port from Mrs. B. Wilson, Mrs. P. S.

Lampman and Mrs. E. MacKenzie, sanctuary committee of the Society

British Columbia, the parks committee of the City Council commended the group for its public spirit, and decided yesterday to recommend development of the area in Beacon Hill south of the nursery.
The committee suggested laying out the ground in woodland walks with flowers and ferns.

Visits City—Norval Gillespie, a prominent California horticulturist and gardener editor of The Sunset Magazine, of San Francisco, left for Seattle yesterday, after spending three days surveying Victoria parks and outstanding gardens with John Grant. Mr. Gillespie intends to return here for the Spring Flower Festival next May. He served his apprenticeship under John MacLaren, ninety-year-old superintendent of Golden Gate Park. He was particularly impressed with the beautiful setting of this city.

pared under the personal direction of Rotarian Frank Sehl and his social committee for the evening cabaret dinner meeting which the Vic-period last year revenue was $206,

Goldstream. The revenue drop this year was $6,886. Rain in June was responsible for a reduction in water consumption. Between May 15 and September 15, rates were reduced to facilitate garden irrigation.

Ask B.C. Help—Members of the Vancouver Parks Board, led by Rowe
Holland, chairman, met a committee of Mainland members of the Legislature yesterday, to urge that the Province support Vancouver's claims

PROVINCIAL POLICE CAMPAIGN AGAINST GLARE HEADLIGHTS

Danger of glaring automobile headlights is being emphasized by Provincial Police, who are carrying on an educational and testing campaign on the Island Highway.
Inspector G. A. Hood, of the traffic department, is anxious for all moterists to co-operate with Provincial Police in having their headlights, lighting systems and brakes tested.
Such action by motorists, he pointed out, would assure greater safety for all travelling the Island Highway and by-roads.

Drivers of automobiles found in need of attention are being asked to have the trouble corrected and report back to police.

High School Students Undertake New Project

The home economics class of Grade XI at the Victoria High School has undertaken a special project this year in connection with health and nutrition studies. In connection with this, a most successful tea was held yesterday afternoon by the students in the cafeteria of the high school, to which the mothers and friends of the girls were invited.

The room had been attractively decorated with Halloween colors and a profusion of Autumn flowers, and the girls who assisted in serving tea were chic little orange-colored aprons and caps. On the tea tables were orange bittersweet, chrysanthemums and colored leaves, while orange table mats, decorated with brightly colored floral and leaf designs, were particularly effective. Orange candles glowed in black candlesticks, and a further Halloween note was introduced by using cleverly cut orange skins to hold ripe black olives.

The girls had made all the sandwiches and cakes which were served for tea.

PROJECT EXPLAINED
Elise George, one of the students, spoke a few words in explanation of the project, the three phases which were being emphasized were the check of habits, health talks and the distribution of extra food to the children of Miss B. O'Kieffe's class at the Boys' Central School, whose progress is being watched and studied with the greatest interest.

Miss O'Kieffe spoke of the value of this interest, both to the students and to the children, many of whom were handicapped largely on account of malnutrition and poor living conditions. As a result of the extra food, health talks and general interest shown to the pupils, a marked improvement in their school work was noticed. Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin, school trustee, spoke appreciatively of what was being done, the project being, she said, thoroughly in keeping with modern ideas of education and most worthwhile.

The party was held under the direction of Miss Peto, and pouring tea were Connie Sullivan, Norma Lovick, Iris Dickson and Edna Wong.

British Author Hopes Fascism Not Coming

TORONTO, Oct. 28 (C.P.)—Phyllis Bentley, the noted British author of "Inheritance" and other novels, interviewed here by W. A. Deacon, said she could not travel or "live" and write, too, but she will be engaged next winter on another York-shire story. This time about what happens to a man who tries to do good to others. "I think of him as a civilizer."

"Are conditions all right now in the British woolen industry?" she was asked. "Yes. Unemployment is very much reduced." "Is that due to armaments?" "No. Improvement began in 1932, and armament did not start till a year ago."

"In 'Freedom, Farewell,' she said she had tried to picture a country ceasing to be free and falling under a dictatorship. "I did not force the analogy, but it needed no forcing. Here were the same conditions that have brought about contemporary dictatorships—increasing corruption in public life, increasing disregard of the marriage tie, and easy divorce; and an increasing weariness of people in bearing their own burdens and wishing to throw them on somebody else."

"I find several of the same conditions in England and America."

There are to be two, in which fourteen artists will appear. Costumes have been specially designed to carry out the spectacular note which is associated with Hallowe'en.

Home Industries Theme Of Women's Conference

Home Industries played a large part in the discussions at the annual conference of Women's Institutes of the Upper Island held recently at Parkville. An interesting demonstration of weaving and use of the hand-loom was given by Mrs. M. E. Barber, of Hope, and it is expected that classes in various crafts will be formed during the coming year.

The completion of the road to Sayward from Mendoc Bay was urged in a resolution sponsored by Sayward and Courtenay delegates. Another resolution asked the Government to preserve the famous Cathedral Grove on the Alberni Highway, and larger grants to the public health nursing services were requested, to extend its valuable preventive work to their districts. Occupational training for persons of sub-normal and defective mentality, not actually insane, was emphasized, and it was pointed out that the cost of this work would be balanced by the saving in the present relief and welfare grants for such people.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS
Other resolutions covered the inadequate space allotted to women's work at the last Vancouver fair; establishment of funds by all branches to cover delegates' expenses; and a suggestion to approach the South District board to hold a joint conference with the northern institutes every two years.

Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, Provincial supervisor of institutes, gave an address on their influence and work, and demonstrated the use of a small hand-carding machine for preparing wool at home for spinning. Mrs. J. L. White, Victoria, described the start of craft industries in her branch, stating that this had more than doubled the membership in a short time. Her beautiful light-blue Winter coat, made of wool hand-

The Victoria Institute will hold a talent tea tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the institute rooms, Fort Street. The education committee will have charge of the programme, under the direction of Mrs. H. D. Watson. All members and their friends are invited.

Is Now Doing Radio Work

MISS ANN ROCKINGHAM

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rockingham, Mill Street, is another Victoria girl who is winning success elsewhere with her talent. Singled out for special notice by Dr. Percy Hull, adjudicator at the Victoria Musical Festival two years ago, because of her unusually well-developed contralto voice, Miss Rockingham went shortly afterwards to California to become a student at the Estelle Brown Mill studio, and is now singing in one of the Los Angeles radio studios. Miss Rockingham was here during the past Summer visiting her parents, and twice sang in concert—once on the Show Boat and the other at a private recital at St. Ann's convent, with Mrs. R. Bourke, harpist, as her accompanist. The Sisters were thrilled with the glorious quality of her voice.

Social and Personal

Wedding Anniversary
The sixtieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. B. Jackson was celebrated yesterday at their home on Herald Street. Throughout the day congratulations were extended by friends and relatives, and many letters and telegrams were received. Among the earlier arrivals to their home was Acting Mayor James Adam, who presented them with a large bouquet of chrysanthemums and a congratulatory letter. During the tea hour, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were "at home," when the guests were entertained by Edward Durrant, who sang, and by Mrs. Lorenze, who recited a poem of her own composition in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson's anniversary. Profusions of flowers which continued to arrive throughout the day decorated the rooms. In the evening, wedding supper, which members of the family attended, was served, the table being centred with a three-tier wedding cake and mauve and white chrysanthemums. Guests arrived later in the evening, and were entertained with musical numbers.

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If October 29 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., and from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

This day will perhaps be one of many quick movements, due to sudden changes in plans. It will pay to be philosophical this day, for if you permit yourself to get in disturbed frame of mind some condition confronting you is apt to become thoroughly demoralized. Merchants and businessmen must be careful of legal technicalities, because from them may arise many of the day's complications. In social circles prevarications, regarding personal advantages, are likely to have disconcerting consequences, probably causing rifts in friendships. This ought to be a favorable day for all forms of financial operations, providing that they are of the conservative type. Married and engaged couples, as well as those whom love has conquered, should avoid giving the impression of being dictatorial or domineering this day.

If a woman and October 29 is your birthday, be careful that through being too methodical you do not make life miserable for yourself and others. Be cautious that impulses do not sweep you off your feet, particularly when anger awakes you. Being kind and generous as you are giving people the impression you are indifferent, is a grievous mistake. You, in all likelihood, possess the qualities required for leadership, so if you engage in political or club activities you ought to be very successful. Your financial prospects are good, and money from unexpected sources might agreeably surprise you. As an office executive, public official, teacher, writer, musician or sales agent you might have the right to eventually consider yourself a spoiled child of Dame Fortune. Apparently you will select the right man for your husband, and your nuptial path may be strewn with happiness. The child born on October 29, generally from the time it reaches preparatory school age until the wisdom of years curbs the tendency, is extremely inquisitive. This youngster must learn to respect the privacy of others, if it is to be kept out of trouble.

If a man and October 29 is your natal day, water has perhaps a great attraction for you. Your love of traveling is apt to lead you into foreign lands.

As an explorer, mining engineer, naturalist, educator, author or promoter your opportunities to make money ought to be numerous.

Mrs. Nichol Hostess at Annual Tea

Mrs. W. G. Nichol, regent of Gontales Chapter, I.O.D.E., kindly loaned her home, on Rockland Avenue, for the chapter's annual child welfare shower and tea yesterday afternoon. About forty guests were welcomed by Mrs. Nichol and Mrs. H. J. Davis, convener of child welfare.

Mrs. B. H. T. Drake and Mrs. G. Denbigh had charge of a table of novelties, the sale of which realized the sum of $25. One hundred and fifteen articles of children's clothing were received and these, together with the chapter's supply of garments, will be used for distribution among the needy families in the city and the Peace River District.

During the afternoon a delightful musical programme was given, songs being sung by Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. T. A. Rickard and Mrs. Rollo Mainway, with Mr. Edgar Holloway as an able accompanist.

Tea was served in the dining-room under the direction of Mrs. Davis, who was assisted by Mrs. A. M. Mount, Mrs. P. P. Curtis, Miss Clearhugh and Miss Marian Pitts. The table was decorated with an exquisite arrangement of pink roses and spirals. In the reception hall and drawing-room were masses of beautiful chrysanthemums.

On Tuesday evening a lecture in aid of the missionary and maintenance fund of Wilkinson Road United Church was given by Rev. William Allan, who illustrated his talk with a good set of lantern slides. The lecture dealt with the missionary work being carried on in the inland districts of India, known as the "Garden of India." Arrangements have been made for three more lectures which will be held during the winter months.

Tells About Trip Abroad

The Gordon Head Current Events Club had the privilege of hearing a delightfully informal Monday afternoon talk by Mrs. J. O. Cameron, of Victoria, who described some of the highlights of her recent European tour. At the close of her address, Mrs. Ursula Ley moved the vote of thanks, and a bouquet of flowers was presented by Miss Betty Lou Playfair. Mrs. Peter McNaughton suggested that a letter of thanks be sent to the leader of the Girl Guides, thanking them for the very delightful tea and entertainment on the occasion of the presentation of the flag, which was the gift of the Current Events Club members.

Mrs. Henry requested that outstanding books be brought to the next meeting, if convenient.

Mrs. J. W. Bishop sang two charming songs, "Dancing Partners" and "Sandman," both the compositions of her accompanist, Mrs. E. G. Paddon, Gordon Head.

The next meeting will take place as usual, the speaker to be announced later.

Benefit Dance Organized for Solarium Aid

A reminder is given that under the auspices of the combined Scottish Societies of Victoria and district a benefit dance will be held in the A.O.P. Hall, Cormorant Street, tomorrow night, in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium. The grand march, to be led by a piper, will take place promptly at 8.30, and a programme of unusually interesting character will take place to the accompaniment of a five-piece orchestra.

Membership Tea Arranged By Auxiliary

A large number of guests were welcomed at the membership tea held yesterday by the Ladies' Auxiliary to St. Joseph's T.B. Pavilion at the home of Mrs. K. T. Hughes, on Richardson Street. Mrs. Hughes and Miss K. Mackay, president of the auxiliary, welcomed the guests, and Miss Emily O'Brien was convener of the affair. Mrs. William McAllister and Mrs. J. G. Trudel had charge of the membership fees.

During the afternoon, Mr. Sidney McAllister delighted the visitors with three baritone solos, the accompaniment being played by Miss Roma Trudel. His songs were "Kashmiri Song," "Sylvia" and "Neapolitan Nights."

Tea was served from a table beautifully decorated in a Halloween motif, with black privet berries and bright French marigolds carrying out the Halloween colors, while orange candles in black cauldrons added a further touch of color. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. W. McManus for the first hour and by Mrs. Stuart Kenning and Miss Harriet O'Brien for the remainder of the afternoon. Members of the auxiliary and others assisted in serving.

World Peace Is Discussed

Mr. F. G. Wyatt was the speaker at the Empire study meeting of Muncipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Tuesday evening at I.O.D.E. headquarters. Taking as his theme "World Peace and the Empire" the speaker summarized the peculiar characteristics of the present international situation which have set in motion a deadly spirit of mutual intimidation and successively accumulating arguments, with reactions in the individual of fear, anxiety, forbidding and perplexity.

The peoples of the democratic countries had suggested many rival cures for present ills, while the more drastic and downhearted nations had turned in despair to the one strong leader.

TROUBLE AGGRAVATED
Unfortunately, he said, the dictators had only aggravated the general danger and panic. Great Britain's loss of her armed world supremacy, and thus of her power to enforce peace upon the world, had left the constituent members of the Empire unprotected, he declared. The path to international peace and Empire security was plain enough, he continued; this being the substitution for trial by battle of some universal institution of justice. The League of Nations had been a brave step in this direction. So far as it had failed its failures had been due primarily to an illogical attempt to combine the new practice of international justice with the retention of national sovereignties and to the accompanying sentiment of false patriotism in the individual citizen, which makes national sovereignty its ideal.

TO ASSIST LEAGUE

The League of Nations Society, he said, exists not to break the League, but to help perfect it and especially to help each and all to discover and to promote the only measures by which an enduring world peace can be achieved.

Mrs. William Ellis, Municipal regent, read extracts from Sir Robert Falconer's address to the League of Nations. Mrs. Allan Campbell gave a brief review of activities of the League during the past sixteen years. Mrs. F. F. Bennett moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Wyatt for his helpful and instructive address, the motion being seconded by Mrs. G. P. Clarke.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

FACIAL NEURALGIA-TRIGEMINAL NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX

One of the earliest surgical operations it was my privilege to perform duty) to watch was for the relief of that terrible pain in the side of the face and head called trigeminal neuralgia (tic doloreux). The pain over the whole side of the face is so terrible that at that time surgery only was the cure in the severe cases. Today, while surgery is still used in the very severe or major cases of this neuralgia, other methods are fortunately available which give relief to many cases.

of many cases helped by other than surgical methods says Dr. O. Dyes, Germany, treated twenty cases of true trigeminal neuralgia with the use of the deep X-ray. In only three cases was there no favorable result. In the other cases the attacks were stopped the shortest for three and one half months, and in one case for as long as eleven years. In relief the results may be termed lasting, in five incomplete. In eight patients a single radiation or a series extending over several days was sufficient to lessen the attacks. In nine patients, who had neuralgia longer, lasting improvement was obtained only by repeating the series of treatments after intervals of a few weeks or months. The method is worth while and should be tried before undergoing surgery.

In the Journal of Medicine, Dr. J. A. Caldwell reports that what is known as the Moyer or castor oil treatment has benefited some cases of trigeminal neuralgia. The method is as follows: one or more ounces of castor oil is administered three times a day for several days in succession until the pain is relieved or the treatment is judged to have failed.

Dr. Caldwell states that he has had several remarkable cases where the pain stopped after this treatment. In one very severe case where all three branches of the nerve were giving pain (patient about to undergo operation) the castor oil treatment stopped the pain in four days and it did not return for four years.

When the castor oil was tried again it failed to help and an alcohol injection into the nerve was necessary to stop the pain.

RETIREES AFTER LONG SERVICE

Veteran of Canadian Railroads Fired Engine in Wood-Burning Days

WINNIPEG, Oct. 28.—With fifty-three years of railroad service behind him, H. G. Reid, assistant general superintendent of motive power, Canadian National Railways, Winnipeg, retired from active service today.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Reid will leave for the South, where they will spend some time visiting their son. On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Reid was the guest of honor at a meeting of his associates and was presented with a purse. Vice-President A. E. Warren, on behalf of the employees of the Western region, made the presentation and paid high tribute to the fine contribution Mr. Reid has made to railway life and development during his long railway career.

Mr. Reid dates his service back to March, 1884, and has the unique distinction of having fired an engine for three years back in the wood-burning days. He was then located in North Bay with the Canadian Pacific Railway. Since that time he has been closely associated with every development of steam railway life. He occupied positions of laborer, fireman, engineer, district master mechanic and master mechanic, and left the service of the C.P.R. in 1915 to join the National Transcontinental Railway as master mechanic.

When the National Transcontinental Railway was co-ordinated with others in 1922, he became general master mechanic and later assistant general superintendent of motive power, and continued in this position until the present date.

JAN KIEPURA IS STAR AT PLAZA

Great Tenor Sings Magnificently in "My Song for You"—Mediteranean Background

The dynamic young tenor, star of "My Song for You," the G.B. musical with a Mediterranean background, which will be seen here today at the Plaza Theatre, is none other than the young man who left his Polish domicile against the wishes of his father to become an opera singer and later returned to the paternal freddie with, as he says, "a million in my pockets."

He is the Jan Kiepora whose magnificent, rich-toned voice has been compared to Caruso's and whose ingratiating manner has been classed with Chevaliers.

"My Song for You" tells the story of the amusing efforts of a popular tenor to win a girl he thinks is a member of the opera ballet. She is really a social debutante, engaged to a baron, in love with a young pianist, and very much annoyed at the persistent and spectacular wooing of the singer, who never heard of the word discouragement and wouldn't believe in it if he had! ## goes the price of LISTERINE!

Now within reach of everyone's pocketbook!

Think of it—Listerine Antiseptic now reduced to 79¢ for the large 14-oz. bottle. This is the lowest price in history. Surely you'll want to take advantage of it. You will want to buy one bottle at least, perhaps more. For Listerine can serve you in so many ways. It's a marvelously powerful yet safe antiseptic. It's a quick, refreshing deodorant. It's a soothing after-shave lotion.

Social Credit is not practical, and I submit just a few ideas in support of this contention. Social Credit states, "Provision must be made for a continuous flow of credit," meaning credit must be available for everybody, whether they be honest or dishonest, or capable or incapable of using credit as credit is intended to be used and redeeming same when called upon to do so. "All hoarding of wealth or credit is banned." This implies that confiscation is the penalty.

I am repeating that Alberta conditions are deplorable due to Abnerhart's policies, and people who have not seen for themselves should not be misled by certain enthusiastic students of a new type of hypnotism.

Drama Association Here Reviews Work At Annual Meeting

Officers Are All Re-elected and Reports Are Read And Adopted—Problems of Stage and Other—Matters Are Discussed by Members

AS an expression of confidence in their work in the interests of the advancement of dramatic art in the province, members of the British Columbia Drama Association last night unanimously re-elected all previous officers and placed in their hands the task of carrying on the duties for another year.

Last night was the annual meeting of the association and, in the absence of Major L. Bullock-Webster, the president, H. S. Hurn presided. There was a good attendance and much useful information was obtained by members through the informal discussions after the election of officers.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The officers re-elected were Major Bullock-Webster, president; Herbert E. Pott, vice-president; H. Roy Goldfinch, secretary, and Harold G. Hinton, treasurer, each one presenting reports covering the activities of the association during the past twelve months. Miss Ethel Bale, associate secretary, read Major Bullock-Webster's report.

In his report the president covered a great deal of ground, referring to the various activities of the association and particularly stressing the importance of community drama. In one part of his report he said: "My contention is that community drama acts as a safety valve. When men and women of divergent beliefs and aspirations are forced by circumstances to live in an unbecoming environment under conditions that are irksome, if friction is to be reduced to a minimum, if tolerance and harmony are to exist, then there must be provision for the pleasant occupation of their leisure hours.

"Community drama," he continued, "can supply this need to a great extent. It can absorb their creative energies. It is something that can, and will act as an antidote to Communist poisons. It soothes the sixth-sense of unproductive economic activity. It is an unguent for the sting caused by the feeling of unjust failure in competitive acquisition."

The report of the secretary, Mr. Goldfinch, covered the general business of the association, and Mr. Hinton, treasurer, reviewed the financial aspects which were, the members agreed, encouraging.

STAGE SETTINGS

The problem, customary with amateur productions, of where to draw the line in stage settings was raised again and was thoroughly discussed and finally left to the executive to remodel parts of the rules to make a definite regulation concerning stage craft. Members were agreed that the problem was not a new one in the local association. It has been the custom in professional theatres to consider stage craft a distinct art in itself, in so far as scenery was concerned and the dividing line between scenery and properties was very definitely established in order to insure quick change without confusion.

It was suggested the association return to the former rule of having all plays put on with the minimum of properties and before back curtains and side drapes. Unless scenery was perfectly executed by trained artists, there was the tendency to overdo the drops and wings and take away the interest of the audience in the play itself. It was intimated the executive committee would go fully into the question and amend the rules mainly to minimize the time now taken for changes between individual plays.

THE ADJUDICATORS

The question of excessive work on adjudicators was also considered and it was suggested a separate hall and separate adjudicator for juniors and seniors, but the whole matter was left to the executive to decide. One of the members remarked: "It seems almost humanly impossible for an adjudicator to give a clear decision when he has a mass of plays hurled at him in a single week."

The age limit for intermediates was mentioned and the executive committee volunteered to give consideration to it. It will be noted that the name of the association has been changed by leaving out the word "festival" from the title. It is now the British Columbia Drama Association.

CONSTIPATED 25 YEARS, ALL-BRAN BROUGHT RELIEF

Delicious Cereal Corrected His Condition

Here is Mr. Johnson's letter: "I got a package (of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN) and before the package was gone I was very much better."

"So I have been eating it for two or three weeks, and my constipation has gone, and I was constipated for 25 years or more. Hoping this may help someone else to better health. I am a new friend to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."—Mr. J. B. Johnson (address upon request).

Mr. Johnson's letter is one of many. Millions find Kellogg's ALL-BRAN corrects constipation satisfactorily. It supplies the "bulk" missing in the average meal.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild and effective. It absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the intestines. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Isn't it more sensible to use this natural food instead of taking patent medicines? Just eat two table-spoonfuls daily. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, etc. It is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

ROBERT MACNICOL TO VISIT VICTORIA

Members of Veterans' Assistance Commission Are Expected Here Shortly

Robert Macnicol, member of the Veterans' Assistance Commission, will soon visit this city for the purpose of asking certain that local ex-servicemen are made acquainted with the aims of the commission.

He is at present in the Interior to meet veterans' organizations at Fernie, Nelson, Penticton, Kelowna, Vernon and Kamloops. On his return to the Coast, he will visit the Island with two other members of the commission. It is planned to hold sittings in Victoria and Vancouver, commencing in the Terminal City about November 12.

The commission desires, according to Mr. Macnicol, that information submitted to it, through questionnaire forms, be as full as possible in order to make a correct estimate of the number of unemployed veterans. If ex-servicemen fail to submit forms at an early date, the work of the commission will be hindered, it is pointed out. Personal information will be treated confidentially.

REJOINING LEAGUE NOT IN THEIR MIND

Japan broke loose from Geneva after the Lytton Commission of the League brought in a report on Japan's conquest of Manchuria (Manchukuo), formerly part of China. The Tokyo Government refused to accept the report. The withdrawal became effective in March, 1935, after two years' notice had been given.

THE SAME ATTITUDE

Japan's attitude toward the Geneva organization, a Japanese spokesman said, "is virtually the same as that of the United States." Japan, he explained, will continue active co-operation with the League on technical and humanitarian questions, and will participate in discussion and settlement of economic problems even if they have a political tinge.

No economic or financial sanctions were imposed by League states on Japan for her Manchurian venture, as they were on Italy in an attempt to halt the Italo-Ethiopian war. But Japan was condemned as an aggressor and the nations inaugurated a policy of non-recognition of Manchukuo as an independent country. This attitude is still being adhered to.

The little Central American nation of El Salvador is the only country, besides Japan, which has given formal recognition to Manchukuo. Germany and Russia, however, have consulates in the country, and Russia, by sending protests over border troubles to the Manchukuo Government, has granted what some observers consider virtual recognition.

Present Prizes For Decorated Tables at Tea

Mrs. A. Sabiston won first prize in the decorated tables display at tea given yesterday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The second prize was won by Mrs. S. Brown and third by Mrs. Maude Hammond. Guests attending the tea were the judges, each having the opportunity to vote. There were thirty decorated tables.

A dainty arrangement of yellow double nasturtiums was used on the prize-winning table, a silver basket filled with the flowers being in the centre and at each of the corners crystal vases of nasturtiums. The second table featured cosmos and yellow marguerites, and at the third table pink cosmos were used.

A short but entertaining programme was given during the tea hour when Mrs. Vivian McCall sang soprano solos and Mr. Frank Partridge was heard in tenor solos. A sketch, "Which Is It," was acted by Mrs. M. Hammond and Mr. A. Swales.

Mrs. George Holt, president of the Ladies' Aid, was the convener. The hall had been decorated for the occasion with Halloween colors and motifs.

KEPT FROM HIS SHIP BY SCIATICA

Sailor Who Could Hardly Walk for Pain

"I am a seaman," he writes, "and have traveled all over the world in sailing ships. Some time ago I was taken bad with sciatica and rheumatism. If I went out I had to limp two or three times before I got home. One day an old mate of mine asked me what was the matter, and he said: 'Get some Kruschen Salts.' So I got some, and I am pleased to say that the great pain after continuing for a week, I was a great deal better, and on the Saturday I was back on my ship."

The pains of rheumatism and sciatica are frequently caused by too much uric acid accumulating in the body. Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts are notable for their work in dissolving uric acid and other ingredients of these salts assist the internal organs to eliminate the dissolved uric acid from the system.

Hudson's Bay Moves Into First Position in Hayward Cup Football Series

Registers 6-0 Win Over Wanderers in Opening Encounter

Bob Preston Stars as Bays Chalk Up Easy Triumph Over Cellar Occupants—Victoria Longshoremen Defeat Navy by 3-2 Score—Spencers Hand Garrison Team 4-1 Setback

HAYWARD CUP SERIES
Hudson's Bay	1	0	0	0
Navy	0	1	0	0
Wanderers	0	1	0	0
Longshoremen	1	0	0	0
Garrison	0	1	0	0
Spencers	1	0	0	0

Yesterday's results:

Hudson's Bay 6, James Bay Wanderers 0.

Spencers 4, Garrison 1.

Victoria Longshoremen 3, Navy 2.

Blanking the cellar-occupant James Bay Wanderers, 6-0, yesterday afternoon in the first half of the double football card presented at the Royal Athletic Park, a smooth-functioning Hudson's Bay eleven, present holders of the Hayward Cup, moved out in front in the current season's chase for the silverware.

In the final fixture on the twin bill, Spencers defeated the Garrison, 4-1, to go into a two-way tie with the Navy for second berth in the standings. Deadlocked at 1-1 as the squads left the field for the rest interval, the Diamond "S" aggregation bagged three markers in the last half.

Playing on their home ground at Admirals Road, Navy tasted their first setback of the season when they dropped a 3-2 decision to the Victoria Longshoremen in a bitterly-fought contest. The eventual winners established a 1-0 lead before the breather, and managed to pull out of the game on the long end of the score.

BAYS WIN EASILY

Returning to local football after an absence of several seasons, Bob Preston, veteran of many important matches in the past, led Hudson's Bay to a one-sided, 6-0 victory over the James Bay Wanderers in the opening tussle at the enclosure. Preston tackled the Bays' front line, and although getting along in years, the veteran tricked the Wanderers' back division by smart footwork and made several openings which should have been converted.

Preston had a great time at the expense of the opposing defence. He scored four goals, and assisted in the other two. The Bays had a big edge over the Wanderers, especially in the opening forty-five minutes when they hemmed the James Bay boys in their own area for practically the whole time.

The green and gold swarmer Bays notched their first goal after fifteen minutes when Preston broke through and made a fine opening for McLellan. The latter's shot was smothered by Goalie Sadler, but Duncan, playing right wing, came in and crashed the rebound into the far corner. With Preston and McLellan leading the attacks, the Bays kept up constant pressure and it wasn't long before they scored again.

PRESTON PAVES WAY

Preston tricked two players and sent a terrific shot at Sadler, which the goalie blocked by going to the ground, but McLellan was in there for the rebound and banged it into the corner with Sadler helpless to save. The next tally came a few minutes later when Preston took Kennedy's long pass, faked a shot, pulling the left back out of position, and then registered with a drive just inside the uprights.

Still pressing, the Bays scored again when Preston duplicated the trick. He gained possession outside the penalty area, faked another drive and scored to the corner with a fast low shot, giving the Bays a 4-0 lead at the interval.

George Wyatt replaced Duncan on the Bays' forward line in the final half, but the store eleven took things easier with a big lead to coast home on. From a corner kick by Oakman, Preston headed into Sadler's arms, but the goalie saving the ball around and across the line for a goal which was credited to the veteran forward. The Wanderers made several sketches as the game progressed, but none of them seemed to create a scoring punch. Not long before the finish, Preston fired in the final goal and his fourth of the match.

All McKinnon refereed and teams follow:

Hudson's Bay—Travis, O'Connell, McConnell, Williamson, Kennedy, White, Duncan, Fogden, Preston, McLellan, Oakman and Wyatt.

Wanderers—C. Sadler, Coates, Knapp, W. Sadler, Goughan, Daniels, White, Ball, Davison, Hood and Aleock.

NAVY GOES UNDER

Gaining a one-goal lead in the initial stanza and then scoring marker for marker with their opponents in the final half, Victoria Longshoremen eluded out a 3-2 triumph over the Navy at the Admirals Road ground.

The sailors had the better of the early play, but their forwards failed to make use of the scoring opportunities. Breaking fast following an attack on their citadel, Victoria Longshoremen broke into the scoring column when Alexander, their centre forward, beat Munde, sailor net custodian, with a hot drive.

Play hovered around centre field for some time, with both clubs battling hard. Towards the end of the half the sailors were awarded a free kick and Will De Costa headed just past the upright after receiving the ball from Sands.

Taking up the offensive as the final half opened, the Navy soon equalized. McLean, speedy forward, netted following a bad play by Ken Fleming, opposing net minder. The sailors continued to press around the longshoremen's goal, but on another breakaway Earl Barnswell scored and put the eventual winners in front again. The Victoria Longshoremen widened their lead to two goals when Harry Holness closed in fast from the right wing and banged the leather past Munde.

MISSING PENALTY

Fighting back with determination the Navy sliced their opponents' lead when De Costa found the net after accepting a neat pass from Brown. Soon after, the sailors were awarded a penalty when Cockrill was fouled in the forbidden area. Bruce Robinson took the spot kick and hit the crossbar. The game ended with the home team still on the offensive but unable to score.

Joe Obee refereed and the teams were:

Victoria Longshoremen—Fleming, Eastwood, Bedford, Rookamp, Fieldhouse, Bourne, Holness, Barnswell, Alexander, J. Murray and Hall.

Navy—Mundie, Hilbert, H. Dovey, Hutton, Robinson, Sands, Hall, McLean, Cockrill, W. De Costa, Walker, Brown, V. Dovey, Tapley and W. Hibbert.

SPENCERS BEAT ARMY

Playing a bustling game and displaying more speed than the soldiers, Spencers chalked up a 4-1 victory in the final game at the enclosure. Garrison played a good combination game and passed well, but their forwards did too much passing instead of driving for the goal. Diamond "S" playing an effective kick-and-rush game, found many holes in the wide-open Garrison defence, particularly in the final half when they drove home three markers.

Twelve minutes from the start the winners opened the scoring when Wally Stewart's sizzling shot was too hot for Glendinning, Garrison goalie. Tommies had plenty of scoring opportunities, but instead of shooting they tried to literally walk the ball into the goal.

The soldiers knotted the score

McMillan refereed and the teams were:

Spencers—Stewart, Cann, Nicol, L. Bradley, More, Clarke, Brown, Turner, Speller, Collins, Stewart and Whittle.

Garrison—Glendinning, Shone, Watt, Thompson, Wallace, Evans, Stewart, Wilkinson, Goldswort, Edwards and Thornburn.

Art Godoy and Haynes Exchange Blows

Arturo Godoy, of Chile, who recently stopped the attempted comeback campaign of Luis Angel Firpo, and Leroy Haynes, the Philly negro, who dampened Primo Carnera's enthusiasm for a ring return, put on a stirring ten-round scrap in New York with the prize a possible shot at Joe Louis. Neither scored a knockdown and little blood was spilled, but the fight faithful saw one of the best heavyweight fights in months and applauded wildly when a draw verdict was announced. Godoy (left) and Haynes are caught in a fast and sharp exchange to the head.

Future of Pro Tennis Depends on Fred Perry

Promoter O'Brien States He Will Give Up Game If English Ace Does Not Accept Contract—Lost $22,000 Last Season

By BOB CAVANAGH

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Whether there will be a profitable organized tour of tennis professionals this winter depends on Fred Perry—and he doesn't know.

Bill O'Brien, the former rub-down expert, who put the pro game on a paying basis, will wash his hands of the sport unless Perry accepts a two-year-old flat offer of $50,000.

"The game needs someone who can stand across the net and give Ellsworth Vines a battle," declared O'Brien, who said he lost around $22,000 exploiting last year's troupe, and Perry's the man. I'm through making overtures to him. He's got to come to me now."

Perry stirred up a great deal of speculation in 1934 when he first received O'Brien's offer. It was a tempting opportunity to turn his amateur glory into gold. One day he thought he would accept, the next day he was sure he wouldn't. "The whole thing was terribly botched up," said Perry.

"I suppose I contributed to the messy state of affairs. My friends and advisers were divided on my taking the professional step to begin with."

O'Brien isn't the only promoter in the field for Perry's services. The best is Mike Jacobs, who entered the bidding today. Mike announced he would split $15,000 between Perry and Vines in the Hippodrome.

"That's all very interesting," Perry remarked, "and quite tempting for one exhibition, but the hitch is the thing is that 'Elly' is in Tokyo and probably won't return for some time."

"I honestly and frankly can't say what I am going to do. As a matter of fact, the entire matter is out of my hands."

"Does that mean you've left it up to your attorney?" he was asked.

"I'm sorry, but I can't say," he replied. "You see, as I said before, the question of my future was botched up previously. This time I'm going to be discreet about it. I probably shall make a definite decision, one way or the other, by the end of the year. In fact, I will have to."

BLOW TO ENGLAND

If Perry turns pro, and there are many who believe he will because there's little left for him to conquer since he has won the American and All-England titles three times in the last four years, it will deal a terrific blow to England's hold on the Davis Cup.

O'Brien, now promoting professional boxing and wrestling in New York's suburbs, has broken off with William ("Big Bill") Tilden and no longer has Vines under contract. He doesn't intend to reopen negotiations with them unless Perry capitulates.

HINDMARCH HEADS

NANAIMO CITY F.C.

NANAIMO, Oct. 28.—J. H. Hindmarch was elected president of Nanaimo City Football Club at an executive meeting tonight to take the place of Joseph Sutton, whose resignation was accepted a week ago. R. Semple is vice-president.

Four new members were added to the executive committee, J. Morimer, Matthew Armstrong, F. Robinson and J. C. McGregor. A committee was named to interview four men whose names were suggested as possible candidates for manager of the team to take the place of "Pat" Edmunds, who resigned at a former meeting.

For the game Sunday with North Shore, Jimmy Knight was appointed captain, with R. Semple and F. Robinson as selection committee for the game only. Clark and Knight were named trainers.

Turn In Smart Display To Take 44-22 Verdict In Senior Cage League

TOR JOHNSON TO APPEAR IN FEATURE BOUT

Giant Heavyweight Will Meet Pat Fraley Here Saturday Evening

Outweighed only by "Man Mountain" Dean, Tor Johnson, who tips the scales well over the 300-pound mark, will make his Victoria debut Saturday evening at the Tillicum gymnasium. The giant matman was signed yesterday by Promoter Fred Richardson for the top bout of the weekly grappling card at the local palace de squirm.

Pat Fraley, popular Nebraskan, who has shown here many times, will be sent in against the powerful Johnson. Ranked close to the top in the heavyweight division, Fraley should prove an able opponent. The Nebraskan will be spotting Johnson more than 100 pounds, but his added speed will more than offset the tremendous weight advantage of the husky New Yorker.

Johnson is quite a gate attraction in other cities, and the local promoter is looking forward to a bumper house Saturday evening.

Chief Thunderbird and Louis Newman, local pachyderms, are also booked on the card. The Indian will show in the semi-windup, while Newman will appear in the special event. Good outside opponents will be secured.

VETERAN JOCKEY CALLED BY DEATH

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Mack Garner, for years one of the best-known jockeys on the American turf, died late tonight following a heart attack.

Garner, one of four brothers, all of whom won acclaim as jockeys, rode four months today at River Downs, formerly Convey Island, and won the first race aboard Slant Eye.

He was astride Cavalcade when that horse won the Kentucky Derby in 1934, won the Landon Derby with Brother Bech in 1921, and captured the rich Belmont Stakes aboard Blue Larkspur in 1929.

Garner had been a jockey for twenty years.

Members of his family, with whom he resided here, said he complained of being ill when he returned from the River Downs track late today.

Garner's brothers, Guy, Lambert and "Skeets," all were jockeys' sibs, but have since retired.

Uncork Fine Teamwork, Speed and Shooting Ability in One-Sided Victory Over Former Teammates—Taylor, Art Chapman Top Scorers—Gainers and Liberty Win

Sparked along by those two brilliant players, Chuck and Art Chapman, and a flock of young rookies who showed real fight, shooting ability and team work from start to finish, Manager Dave Nicol guided his 1936-37 edition of the one-sided victory over the Capitals last night at the High School gymnasium in the Victoria and District Basketball League.

A 44-22 score. In the opening game in the men's senior "B" division, Liberty Cafe swept through to a 39-13 decision over Jennings Florite, while Gainers Superiors came through with a 34-28 triumph over the Cardinals in the second game in the women's section.

Never in doubt after the first fifteen minutes, when the Dominions worked themselves into a 15-0 lead, the senior tussle was fast and rough in spots, with both teams being guilty of heavy checking. Nicol's understudies showed too much class and finish for their much lighter and smaller opponents. They appeared in better condition, had speed to burn and worked some sparkling plays as they swept in under the Capitals' basket. A powerful zone defense had the Caps baffled as they tossed the ball around from man to man, trying to find a loophole, but none was there to be found. The result was most of the Caps' points came from long shots in the final half.

A SMART TEAM

On the other hand, the Dominions clicked from the minute Referee Macedo sounded the whistle. Chuck Chapman and Carl Coates, who is taking Doug Peden's place this season, formed a formidable defense to crash through, and they had the wing forwards of the Caps bottled up all night. Working with Art Chapman on the front line was Roy Taylor, Bert "Red" Davies and Hank Rowe, three youngsters who have the makings, there is little doubt about that. Webster and Noakes also got into the game and should work in with the rest of the boys as the season progresses.

Racing through from the opening whistle, the Dominions scored in the first ten seconds when Webster took Art Chapman's pass and scored from under the hoop. Martin tossed in a long shot to tie it up, and then Webster added a foul. Goldsmith took Martin's pass and found the hoop to put the Caps in the lead at 4-3 with three minutes gone. The Caps held their own for the next seven minutes, but they found the Dominions' zone defence a tough problem, never breaking through it.

At the ten-minute mark Art

Chapman sent the Dominions into the lead, but Goldsmith hooked one in from the side, court to tie it up at 8-8, but the Caps had shot the works and the Dominions went to work and sailed into a 15-8 lead with only five minutes of this half. Coates, Art Chapman, Davies and Taylor were the boys who boosted the lead and the Caps called time out to talk it over.

As play resumed Davies intercepted a pass and raced through by himself and then rifled a lightning pass to Taylor from a difficult angle and the Dominions were leading then, 19-9. With only two minutes left, Coates rang the hoop with a long shot, but it failed to go through, but Taylor ran in and converted the rebound. Taylor increased it to 22-9 seconds later and then Chuck Chapman caught the Caps' defence fast asleep when he bounced a long shot off the back board and then tore through a wide opening to push back the rebound as the half-time whistle sounded, leaving the Dominions in front, 25-9.

DEFENCE PROVES SOUND

With the game already won as far as they were concerned, the Dominions played careful basketball, but their defence never faltered for a split second. Alex McKeachie went to the sidelines on four personals, with the score reading, Dominions 30, Capitals 10. Hank Rowe went on for the Dominions, replacing Taylor. The Dominions kept up the attacking and the game was settling roughly with the period half over. Martin joined McKeachie via the foul route, and then Goldsmith was ushered to the showers later on, leaving the Caps to finish the game with four men. Taylor, Rowe and Art Chapman kept adding to their team's total, while the Caps got through for the odd basket. Art Chapman went off just before the finish and Taylor went to centre.

Macedo handled the game well and teams follow:

Dominions—R. Taylor (19), A. Webster (3), H. Rowe (5), A. Chapman (11), C. Noakes, C. Chapman (5), C. Coates (4) and B. Davies (6). Total, 44.

Capitals—G. Andrews (4), O. Goldsmith (9), H. McLean (11), A. Martin (5), R. Shepherd (3), A. McKeachie and I. McKeachie. Total, 22.

Gainers Superiors—M. Peden (8), M. Purdy, L. Sparks (11), F. Peden (9), B. Elston (6), E. Trotter (1), R. Bethel. Total, 34.

Cardinals—V. Hannan (14), D. O'Connor (4), E. Elston, P. Blackmore (6), V. Hall (4), B. Crosby and J. Trotter. Total, 28.

Liberty Cafe—C. Sharpe (9), B. Lansell, B. Naysmith, D. Naysmith (4), J. Robb (14), G. Moore (12). Total, 39.

Jennings Florite—Knapp (7), Ellis (2), Davey, Wilson (2), Norwood, Richards (12), Watkins and Price. Total, 13.

Toronto's New Net-Minder

All ready to catch flying pucks and, if possible, a job as regular cage guardian for the Toronto Maple Leafs, Walter "Turk" Broda, the $8,000 beauty that Conny Smythe bought from Detroit Olympics last Spring, puts on his act. Broda must out the veteran George Hainsworth to land the job, which won't be so easy. His work at the Leafs' training camp, however, has drawn plaudits from the hockey faithful.

LOU AMBERS IS DEFEATED

Lightweight Champion, in Non-Title Battle, Loses To Eddie Cool

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28 (AP).—Eddie Cool, of Philadelphia, won an upset ten-round decision over Lou Ambers, lightweight champion, in a non-title fight tonight.

Ambers weighed 136-12, Cool 139. Ambers was making his first appearance since winning the championship from Tony Canzoneri.

Ambers forced the fighting most of the way, but Cool, apparently following a set plan either held the champion at arms length with a left jab or tied him up in the clinches, while countering with rights to the head and body.

Judge Ed Loughran and Al Voice each gave Cool four rounds, Ambers three and three even. Referee Mat Adgie gave Ambers five rounds, Cool four and one even.

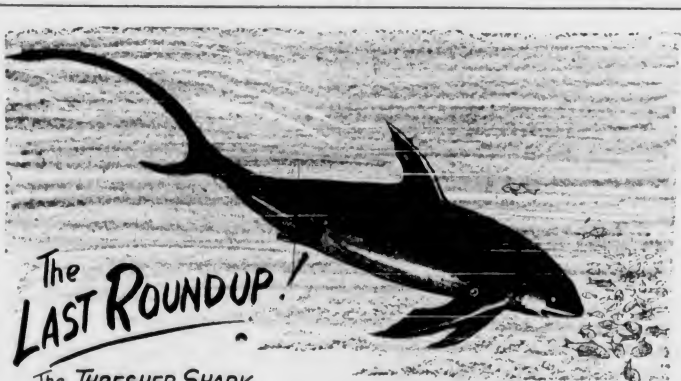

Tony Morzano, 135, Philadelphia, won a ten-round decision over Davis Fine, 137-12, of England, in the semi-windup.

Paul Pirrone, 161-12, Cleveland, scored a technical knockout over Frankie Card, 162, Philadelphia, in the eighth round of a scheduled ten-round bout.

BADMINTON ENTRIES TO CLOSE TONIGHT

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Legislature Before United States Senate—James Jackson (1757-1806), distinguished Georgian, was elected Governor of his State in 1788 when he was thirty-one years old. He declined the election on the grounds of youth and inexperience, although he had a distinguished military and legal career behind him even then. He was subsequently elected a United States senator, but resigned after two years for the purpose of running for the State Legislature. He was elected Governor of Georgia a second time at the age of forty-one, and then returned to the United States Senate for a term of five years.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

WATCHING YOUR "P'S" AND "Q'S"

"P's" and "Q's" today may refer to almost anything.

They may be household expenses, business overhead, legal procedure, diplomatic manoeuvres, health, politics—anything that requires attention, concern, thought.

Until comparatively recently, however, the injunction to "Watch your p's and q's" rarely arose in situations where it was originally called forth. "P" and "Q" then, used to stand respectively for "pint" and "quart."

The phrase comes to us from olden times when ale houses chalked on the wall, or wherever handy, customers' accounts, in terms of these units of consumption which would head the statement.

The period may not be far off when the expression will revert right back to its original usage.

It takes patience, an indomitable will, a high courage, a true sense of justice and kindness in the ultimate to gain citizenship in that state of happiness which each and every one of us believe we deserve.

I've listened to your laments for such a long time that I'm quite sure you'll lend an ear to mine.

I know you pretty well. If I get in the wrong pew, I'm quite sure you'll tell me about it.

LIKES THE MAN BUT NOT HIS UNIFORM

Thorn No. 1:

A young woman has written to me to ask what she's going to do about her young man, who is in the navy. He's due for shore leave. He's coming home, and the two of them have planned grand times together. She "rates a lot" for him. But she's worried. She doesn't want him to wear his navy uniform on these grand times, and she asks if it will be all right for her to ask him not to wear it.

I've told her the answer in a personal letter, and I pulled no punches. It just happens that she asked the wrong person for sympathy, because I am the wife of an officer in the army. When my husband wears his uniform, I'm proud.

I'm not only proud of him, but I'm proud of the uniform. It stands for splendid service—the service of country. He does not wear it for purpose of personal parade. Either regulations require it or, in off duty hours, circumstances necessitate it.

So to the worried young lady who wonders what she will do about the navy uniform—take it and like it. If you cannot have respect for the uniform, you do not respect the man who wears it. If you know how real loving wives and sweethearts of service men work for that uniform, you would understand how indignant we are over any question as to its propriety.

HOW TO FIND A MATE

Thorn No. 2:

This thorn has to do with men and women who write to me and ask me to find them a mate.

I am not Mrs. Solomon, and if I were I doubt that I should be able to find the right woman for the right man, or the right man for the right woman.

This office is one each individual must perform for himself or for herself. There is no living person, no living agency, adequate to select your mate for you. Those who purport to do it are either gamblers or fakers. To find your mate you must have open eyes, a kindly heart, and a capacity for friendship.

You must like people and be interested in people. Don't think about what you want. Think about what others want or need. Concentrate on what you can do for those in your community, and while you are doing what you can, you will be bound to meet the one who will do the most for you. We meet the comrades worth-while on the firing line of life. They are not sent to us via the mails.

Thorn No. 3:

Maybe your husbands are all you say about them, but what are you holding out for—a meal ticket? They're cruel, they're unfaithful, they're penniless. Tell them what you tell me, and if they don't reform, take a walk to the divorce court. Every organized community has a court for legal adjustment of marital relations that have gone berserk. Life is not a wishing ring. It's a business that may require expert and legal adjustment. Stop sobbing and get going.

Thorn No. 4:

Please do not ask me how to overcome your self-consciousness. This, too, is something you must do yourself. If you will remember when you are self-conscious that you are one tiny grain of sand on an infinite beach and that you sparkle only by reason of the sunshine you radiate, is might help.
